Brighter"

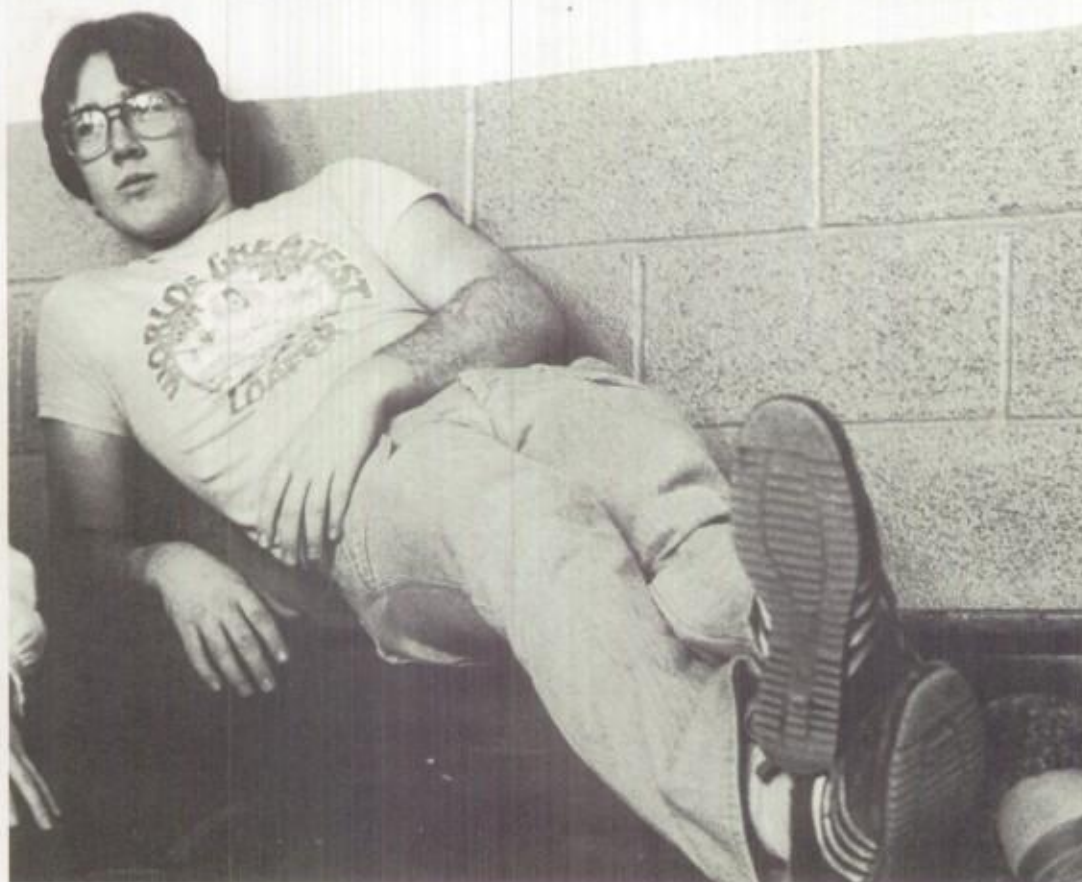

We're Growing . . .

*Better
And Brighter*

1979 marks the end of the 70's, the decade that began with violence bitterness and disunity is ending with a calmer atmosphere. In these peaceful times we have been able to turn our thoughts to tomorrow, and to devote our energies to growing better and brighter.

This year we have seen some significant changes at Ellet. With the help of our talented artists and dedicated janitors, Ellet has come alive with color. Our yearbook hopes to reflect these colorful changes; not only with the senior picture in color, but the first five pages of the yearbook as well. The walls are brighter and the atmosphere, cheerful.

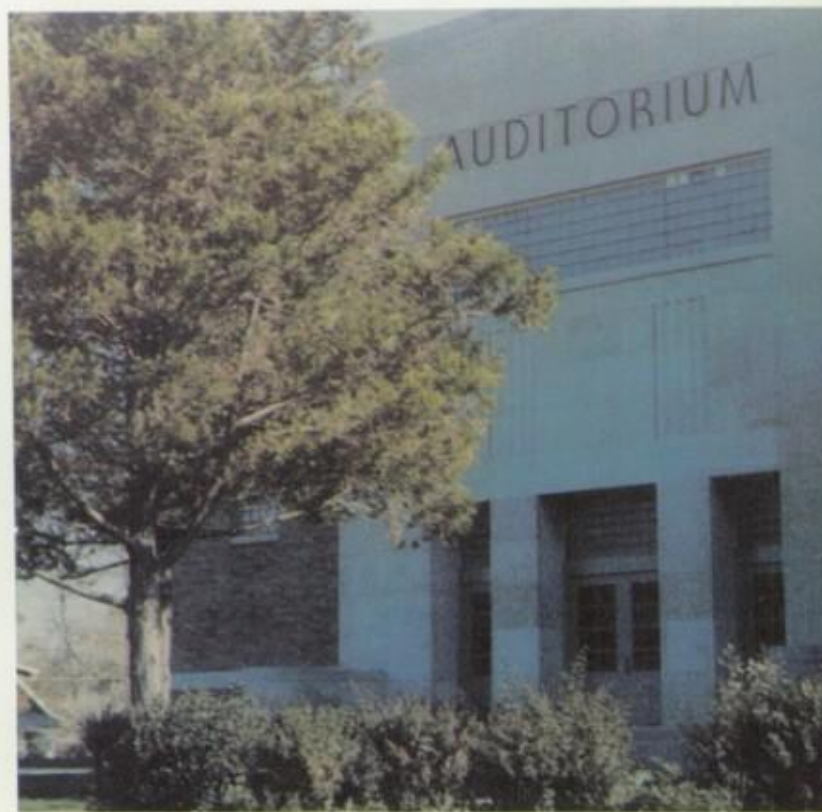

Outside of the school, other changes have occurred. The smoking area is larger, more convenient, and more comfortable with benches. Student Council has given us a memorable Homecoming dance, and has established a "Candy Bar" in the senior Lounge. We have a larger library, a successful vocational program, and even an integrated teachers lounge! Everything around Ellet is expanding to accomodate the demands of today's students.

As we advance to the future, we will carry with us the memories of our past. We will cherish the fads and fashions, crises and curriculum that have made up our years at Ellet. It is through the knowledge we have aquired here that will help us grow: Better and Brighter.

Assemblies Display The Spirit At Ellet

T-Shirts Reflect Times

Michelle Sawyer, Kim Kovach, Teresa Schilling, Sue Musch (back to camera) display t-shirts that show off many of the more popular concerts that have been in the Akron area in the past few years. Not shown were many of the Barry Manilow and Bob Seger shirts much in evidence in the Ellet halls.

Showing their opinions of themselves and others are Nanette Davies and Laura Langwell.

Clearly stating the superiority of women in her "If You Want A Job Done Right - Have A Woman Do It" t-shirt, is Cindy Doringo.

Showing off t-shirts that are favorites are Cheryl Peifer, Cindy Rataj, Paula Hudak, and Ralph Wiloughby.

Mickey Mouse fans unite! Jim Adzema, Cindy Bonner, and Karen Weaver did, to pose for photographer Becky Naska, on the yearbook sponsored T-Shirt Day.

Steve Martin would be proud of seniors Becky Naska and Dale Richards, as they sport the Wild and Crazy t-shirts so popular currently.

So who needs Randy Newman? Not Amanda Smith. She proves that athletes don't have to be six feet tall.

Just 'hangin' around' is Valerie Hayes, who tells the world she likes LOVE cosmetics.

Those in style wear t-shirts. T-shirts to most people are so popular that they are considered to be the common dress for all, and to keep up with the times one will often buy a t-shirt.

More and more t-shirts are created every day to advertise businesses such as the Harley Davidson motorcycles, the local Bon-Ton bakery, various pizza shops around the area and the Acme-Click store most businesses have t-shirts to sell their products.

T-shirts are sometimes used as souvenirs to bring back memories and events. Some of these include many t-shirts to recall the latest concerts: Pink Floyd, Foghat, Peter Frampton, Aerosmith, Heart, and Barry Manilow. Souvenirs of places include t-shirts from Disney World, which commemorated Mickey Mouses' 50th birthday, and shirts from various vacation spots. School events such as the musical, play, the thousands of athletic teams, and shirts advocating class superiority, are featured.

Still other t-shirts are used to make comments on a wide range of subjects. Some that advertise this is the 'Baby Soft' shirts, as well as the 'Wild and Crazy' gal and guy shirts taken from the popular Steve Martin routines. Shirts call others names: How about calling a friend "Turkey, or "I'm with Stupid", as you walk with your boyfriend,, or "If you want a job done right- have a woman do it." Walking down the hall, a person can tell who the latest couples are by their t-shirts. Some couples wear "Master"/"Slave" shirts where the guy usually wears Master and the girl wears Slave. Other couples just wear matching t-shirts.

To be sure of the latest fad, the latest rock group the latest saying or the latest couple, all a person has to do is look.

The Orangemen football team defeated the Big Blue of South by a score of 12 to 8.

Junior Class Of 80 Defeats 79 And 81 In Spirit Wall

In years gone by, they called it the Sign Day. A wall was given to each class, and they went crazy making signs to cover the wall.

They were then given a broom stick, covered with orange and white pom-poms and as the winners, had the right to boast of "Class Pride" as the losers went silently away, to ponder their loss and wait for the next year to "try again."

The year 1978 was no different, except that the classes are now given a hallway instead of a wall, and now that prized broomstick has become an engraved plaque. The furor to "Get the Stick" is still as great as it's always been.

The real action starts the day before the judging. The various classes gather, all awaiting the Spirit committee members to tell them what is first on the agenda for the evening.

And then the real war starts.

Seniors, juniors and sophomores all begin to hang streamers, paint posters and otherwise frantically work to complete the most class oriented project of the year.

Posters are painted, saying everything from SOMF, (Save Orangemen Memories Forever, according to the Senior class), to Juniors '80 - Seniors '79. Sophomores, frantic in their first attempt to decorate a hallway, are busily putting forth valiant efforts to show that they too can have a good wall.

The other two hallways are alive with Junior Rah and Senior Rah as the two upperclasses vie in friendly (well, most of the time) competition to "Win the Wall." Everything from streamers to orange paint disappear, only to be replaced by more streamers and more paint from somewhere else.

All morning, finishing touches are put on the halls and repairs are rapidly made.

Then comes the assembly, featuring the Coneheads and the presentation of the award—this year to the Junior class. "The seniors were very deserving of the award," said one teacher, who was a judge. "I was pushing for them last year. The juniors did an admirable job, but I think that it is not who wins, but rather all the effort that is put into making this day what it is."

The losers (if you can call them such) will try again next year and the winners will try to defend what they've done. The Spirit Wall may only come once a year, but the happiness and camaraderie the classes share will long outlast the gleaming memory of your class name on a shining plaque.

Orange Blossom Is A Success

The second annual Orange Blossom Festival filled Ellet's halls with displays and concession stands. The entire evening was to show the theme Academic Excellence of the school's program. Displays demonstrated the scope and sequence of what is taught in the classes, while the various booths helped various organizations a chance to make money for their activities.

Mrs. Vivian Saccone was the chairperson who worked with the various clubs at Ellet as well as the different elementary schools in the area. The whole evening demonstrated the unified program in the Ellet district of Akron.

"We Got Tonight"

The Theme for the 1979 Sweetheart Dance was "We've Got Tonight" by Bob Seger. The dance was sponsored by the various choirs. Held in the Willoughby Gym, the dance was a big job that was turned into a remarkable success. The gym was turned into a burgandy, red and white twilight zone, where couples danced to the music of the band Paradise.

Much work was put into the dance by the choirs. The chairpersons of the planning committees were: Kathy Rolenz, Robin Stover and Tom Jones.

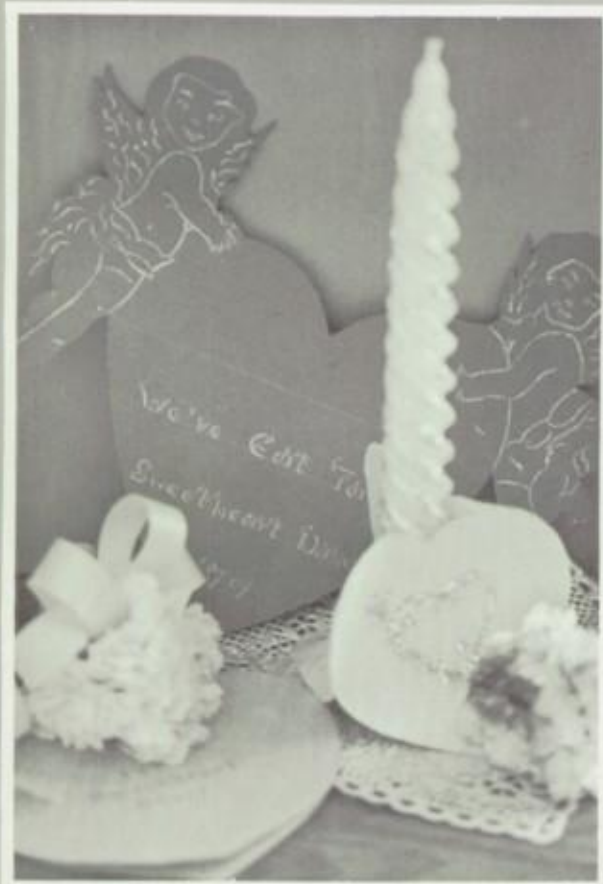

The King and Queen of the 1979 Sweetheart Dance were Seniors Tony Battle and Kathy Banar. Their court was: serving as crowners were Sally Shrock and her escort Mark Denham, crown-bearers, Karen Lucart and her escort Tim Enos, Senior attendant, Vicky Grizzle and her escort Ron Rizzo, Junior attendant, Charlotte Miller and her escort Mike McAttee and serving as the Sophomore attendant was Margie Suiter and her escort Dan Mills.

Seniors Go Crazy!

Seniors look on as their fellow classmates parade on stage in costume.

Beth Dudich, Theresa Moris, and Dee Westren posed as a good breakfast.

Winning best costume for the guys was Tom Stager dressed as Rod Stewart, only that wasn't quite how he explained it to the audience!

Costume Day was a great success as many members the senior class showed off their creativity.

Although we could only have two winners in the costume area, from the fine display of costumery it's our guess that there would have been more!

This year Steve Martin alias Doug Boarman hosted the 1979 Senior Talent show. Doug encored last years performance of the "Antler Dance" with another favorite "King Tut" with some help from Paul Dort, Marty Pantages, and Bob Dimoff.

A picture says a thousand words, and if this picture could talk Bill would probably be saying them all!

During Sr. Week we worked very diligently. Well, one of us did anyway!

Ellet has been producing a number of interesting high school courses in the past few years. In this picture Marty Pantages demonstrates his superior talent in Advanced Paper Folding. Thankyou Marty!

Nearing the end of Senior Week came the class picnic, this year held indoors because of the bad weather, and the prom, and promenade.

The prom was held at the Hilltop Room at the University of Akron. The theme was "A Dream Goes On Forever" played by Daybreak, and again the promenade was at the Colliseum where students enjoyed bowling, pinball, a live band, and lots of delicious food. Thankyou Parents!

When looking back on recent years,
Through all the laughs and all the tears,
We see that triumphs, goals, and fears
All played parts in our future careers.

Many times we want to halt all time
And take an inventory of our minds.
But time goes on as we will climb,
To further heights and further "finds."

We're starting now to see our lives,
Take larger leaps and deeper dives.
And greater challenges and greater drives,
Make life after high school worth the time.

Rosalys Craft, the head secretary for Ellet High School, smiles for our photographer as she prepares to retire during the school year.

The Senior Advisory Council has been busy. Not just in lieu of the fact that they have the Senior Prom to plan, or commencement exercises, or any one of the other "thousand" things they have to do. No, they also have raised money for the senior class, been in many fund-raising projects, and pitched in to organize the Spirit Wall.

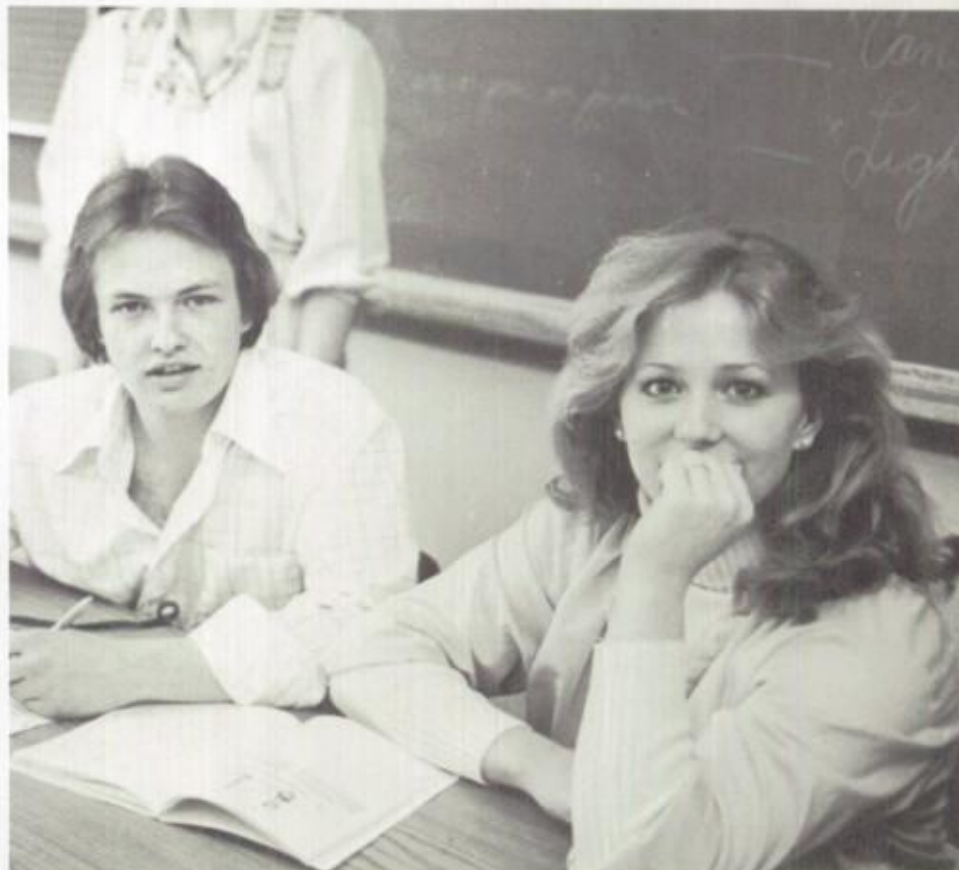

Heading this hassle was class president Dave Michaels, vice president Jim Adzema, secretary Dee Westren, and treasurer Johanna Watkins.

"It's an important job, I think, and being on this council has meant alot to me. I don't know if all the decisions have been the best but we've certainly tried." - Sue Palazzo, advisory member.

Below, Johanna and Dave finish tallying votes, and prepare to announce the cap and gown colors, black and white.

Ralph Willoughby, everyone favorite custodian, retired this year. Graduating with the class of '79, Mr. Willoughby took Government this year from Mr. Auten. His departing from Ellet will be a sad experience, for all of us.

Ellet's Administration Deserves A Lot

An administration is a group of people in charge. Right here at Ellet High School we have an administration that may be the finest in the city. We have learned very much with the help of many sincere, qualified administrators in the building. We appreciate the work that they have done each and every day and we owe much to them.

These people care for and about us. Sure, we've had our disagreements and misunderstandings, but shouldn't we each consider the fact that these are the kind of people who are put in bad positions simply because of their jobs?

Alex Rachita and Tom Jones are assistant principals.

Rudy DiDonato is a counselor of students.

Susan Becker is also a counselor.

Janice Witherow, too, is a counselor.

Toma Shares His "Love"

David Toma's love for people and his sincerity was apparent throughout his lecture.

Ellet students crowd into the Willoughby Gym to listen to Toma.

On February 12, 1979, a person came to Ellet High who changed the lives of many of our students. That person was David Toma. In an assembly that lasted the largest part of the morning, Toma talked about drugs and life. After his talk, he gave students a chance to sit and discuss their problems with him.

A former New Jersey policeman, one-time professional baseball player, and ex-boxer, David Toma has been referred to by law enforcement agencies as "one of the greatest law enforcers of all time." What is more important, he is a man who cares about and truly loves other human beings. He is genuine and sincere, and these qualities are reflected in his lecture.

Mr. Toma has been touring the country giving lectures for 15 years, and his basic philosophy hasn't changed. "If you're gonna play, you're gonna pay." He also stated that all he asks kids to do is use a little common sense and to use their heads.

David Toma came from a family of 12 children. He grew up in the ghetto of Newark, New Jersey, so he knows what it's like. He also knows that it's like to be hooked on drugs because he was once a drug user. He speaks from experience, not observation.

David Toma has made over 7,000 arrests without ever once firing his revolver at another person while in the line of duty. He is the only person to have had two concurrent television series, Toma and Barretta, modeled after his life.

The Ellet Concerned Citizens group was formed in September by the counseling staff of Hyre Jr. High School in a belief that families needed help in dealing with drug and alcohol abuse problems among young people.

All of the area PTAs and school enthusiastically became involved with area organizations and clergy. This group, with the help of Mr. Floyd Sypherd, 6th ward councilman, sponsored David Toma's visit to Ellet community.

The Ellet Concerned Citizens is now attempting a free Counseling Center at Ellet Hall, plus a Youth Hotline.

Toma did not deliver his message to the Ellet High students by sermonizing, but by showing that he lives his message. Toma's life is his message.

Right: Floyd Sypherd, 6th ward councilman, took an active part in bringing David Toma to the Ellet Community.

David Toma enthusiastically runs onto the gym floor to begin his lecture as Ellet High students and faculty look on.

Ellet was fortunate this year to have many fine speakers visit. Among them was John Seiberling and Lieutenant Governor Dorrian. At left: Kathy Banar, Gary Sherwood, and Patty Oberholtz are commended by Representative Seiberling on winning the Voice of Democracy essay contest.

Students applaud guest speaker.

Mr. Bauer gets a taste of his own medicine.

Lieutenant Governor candidate Dorrian was brought to Ellet by Mr. Bauer. He ran against Richard Celeste for the Democratic ticket.

Uncle Gary (As his runners and students call him), was pleased with his team's talent, ability, and the potential the underclassmen showed throughout the season. Uncle Gary was overjoyed with the first finishes in the Dover and Hoban invitationals. Congratulations to our Seniors who put in a lot of hard work throughout the years and good luck to our future number one runner.

Volleyball Team Set For Action

Ellet's 1978 Volleyball team finished third in the city, losing to Garfield in the playoffs in three close games. This year was the largest team ever with the junior varsity carrying a full schedule.

Velvet White was voted Most Valuable; Amanda Smith was voted Best Defensive Player. Voted Most Improved were Lynn Fogle, Denise Bisesi, and Lori Austin.

Coach Cooper said, "Third was not indicative of the success of the team. Skill and technique-wise, we were one of the best teams in the area."

Wrestlers Pin A Good Season

This year's wrestling team had a rough year, but Mr. McIntyre assured us that this was definately a rebuilding year for the young team.

With a squad of three seniors, eight juniors, and only two sophomores, the team pulled through with a record of three wins and eight losses. With the majority of the team being juniors, next year's team looks like a winner.

The 1978-1979 wrestling team is as follows:

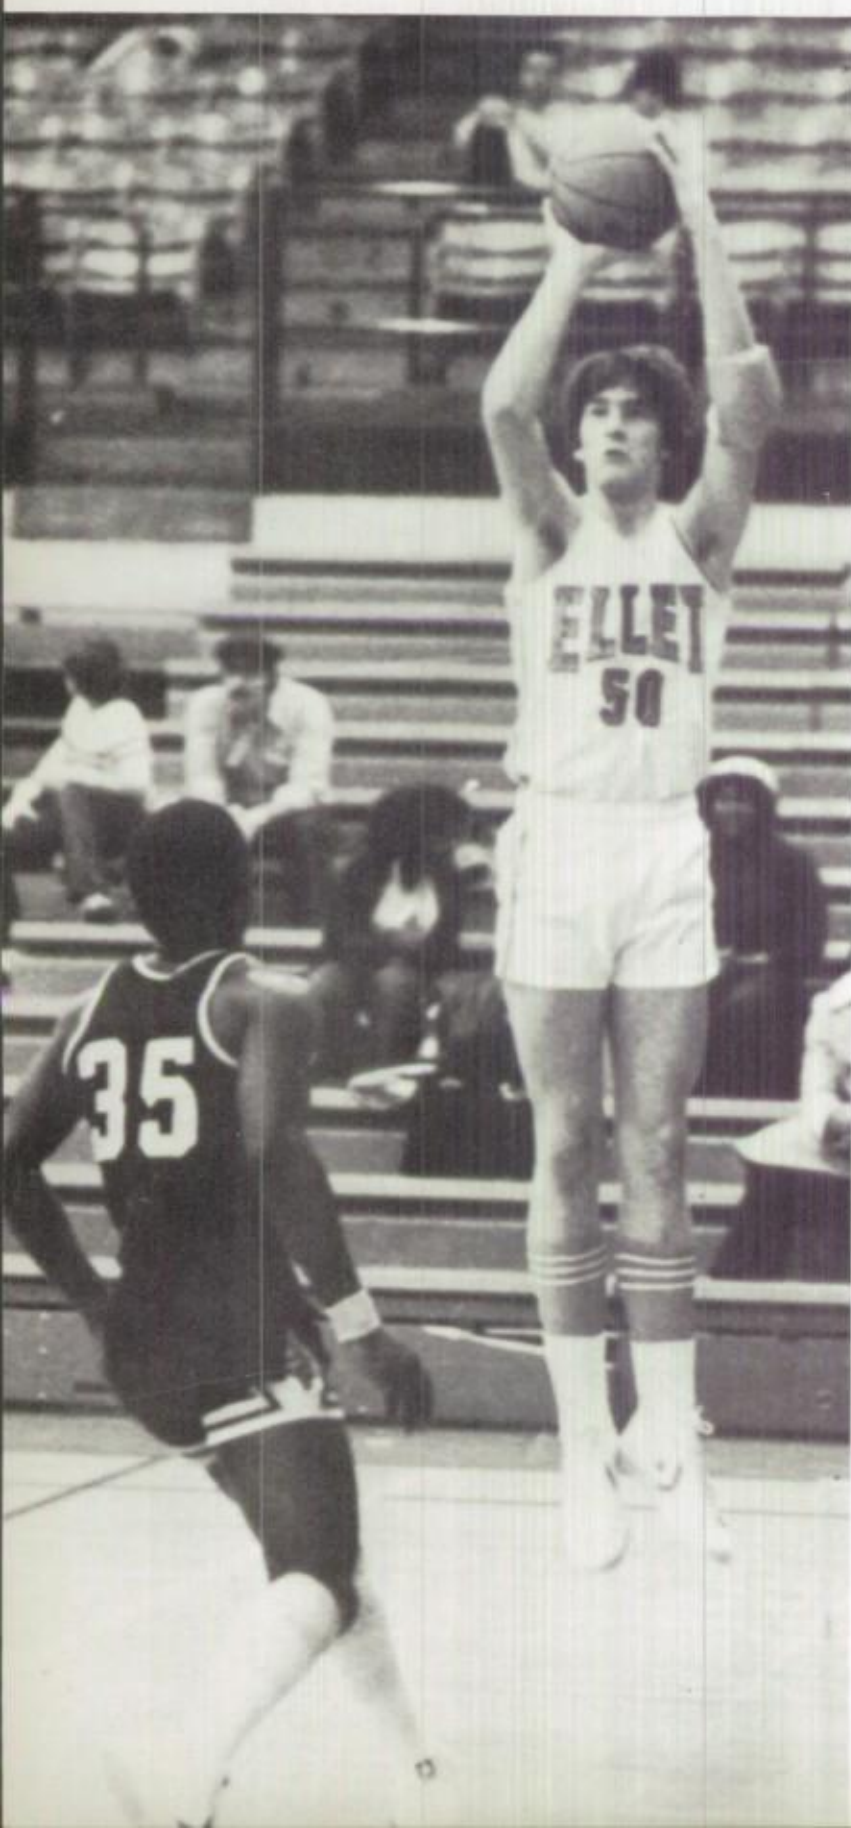

WT. CLASS	NAME	GRADE
98 lbs.	Shawn Reilly	11
105	John McClenan	11
112	Mark Worrell	11

The 1978-1979 baseball team had an outstanding season. The team finished 17-6 overall and 7-1 in city series play. They advanced all the way to the North Canton Class "AAA" Regional Tournament only to lose to Stow 3-2. We beat city rival Kenmore in the semi-final game of the Barberton Class "AAA" District Tournament and then beat Barberton for the District Championship. Going to North Canton for the Regional we had the best season in three years of high school baseball. 1979 was the first time Ellet beat East EVER! (6-5)

Madick, M. Teeling T. Piercy, C. Lindesmith, Coach Dave Pryseski. Front R. Blades, C. Roberts, P. Wischt, M. Ritterbeck, T. Farkas.

Larry Werner, City Shot Put Champion, scored a season record 161¼ points to lead the track team to a 3 and 5 City Series record and 6th place in the city Meet. Larry set a school record of 54'7" in the shot. Senior Mike Teeling lowered the 330 yard low hurdle record of 40.9 seconds. Junior Dave Carpenter was second in scoring with 109 points, earned in the distance events.

Werner prepares for another Shot Record.

Photographer's Favorites

Senior Becky Naska says of all the pictures she has taken this one named "Sahara" is her favorite. This picture gets a lot of recognition because it tends to make people contemplate. "It's my favorite because of the work and time put into it and the reaction it gets."

(bottom) Don Brodie likes this picture because it shows the top form of two Ellet basketball players (Rich Blaydes and Steve Winters) on the attack to give the fans what they want. In a season under the direction of Coach Bruce Moore, they did tremendous in the city and over all. "I'm glad I had the opportunity to capture these fine athletes."

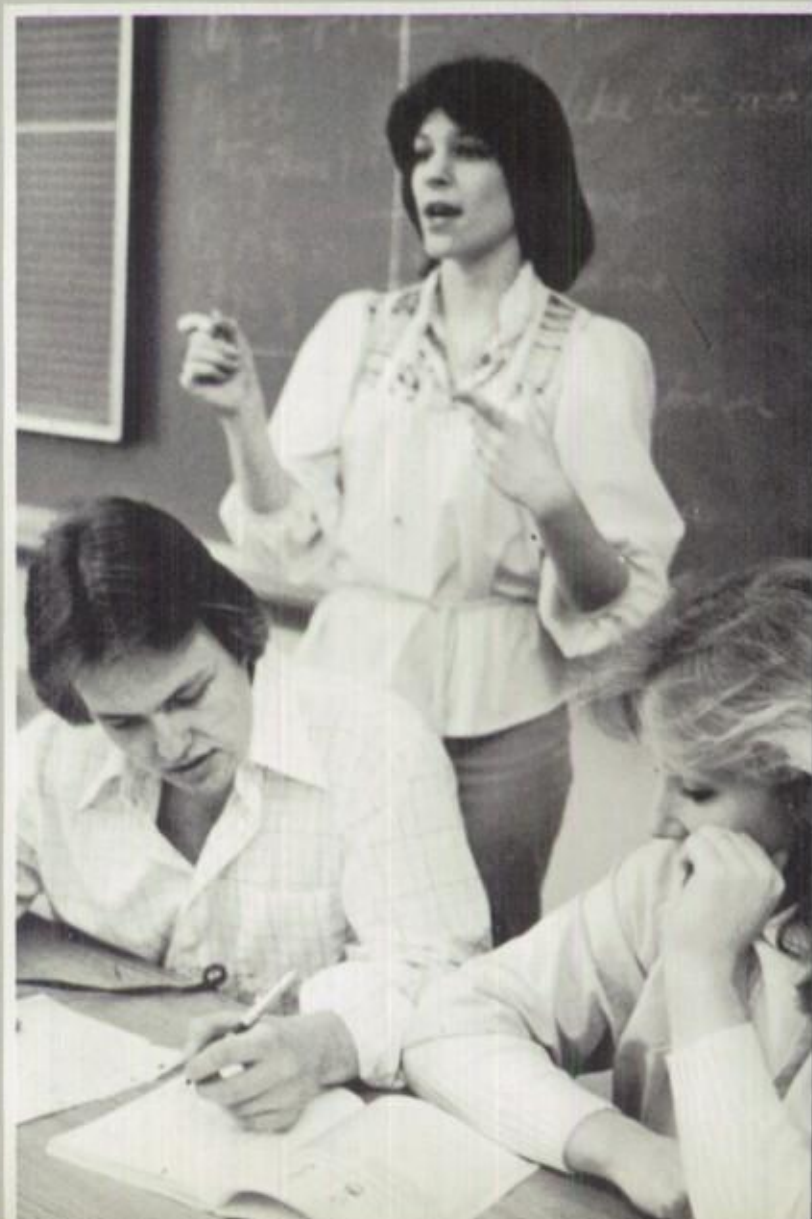

Kim Kovach feels the effort put into this photograph was her best effort. "This photograph is what I feel a picture should portray—a spontaneous reaction. I got the image of the man without even really thinking first."

This picture by Tim Fargo is what he feels his best effort in photography has brought him. Tim likes this picture because it shows the world still has some simple qualities left in it.

They Believe In Music

'Now is the time to join. It's the organization at Ellet that sponsors the Sweetheart Dance, Talent Show, and the Broadway musical. It performs all over Summit County. It wins 1st place awards at contest. It boasts the elegant Madrigal singers. Join choir and be a part of the group that gets things done.' - Bryson Fillmore, P.A. announcement.

The Master Keys, sing everything from 'In the Good Ole' Summer time' to the Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young hit 'Find the Cost of Freedom.' Leaning on the steps at Christmas, are from top to bottom, Randy Eplin (Bass) Tim Farkas (tenor), Chane Eplin (baritone) and Harry Gardner (Lead). The four have performed with the Madrigals and choir, and on their own. The group was featured in the Elletian Star in February, and are now planning on staying together after graduation, as all are seniors.

After performing about 21 performances in just December, some tired Madrigals posed for this picture. From left to right they are Don Stewart, Cheryl Bowman, Tom Jones, Tracy Butcher, Mark Welfley, Paula Booth, Mickey Calli, Pam Tharp, Don Leonard, Kathy Rolenz, Dale Eckelberry, Ruth Mull, Randy Eplin, Sue Sypherd, Chane Eplin, Vicki Rinella, Tom Batchik, Sherri Greene, Tim Farkas, Becky Butcher, Harry Gardner, and Leslie Laubscher. The Mads are escorted by their partners at all their formal performances.

The Ellet choirs have maintained a reputation of excellence in the city with over thirty Christmas performances, the Sing-A-Thon for diabetes, and a fund-raising concert for cerebral palsy. From the Symphonic choir's new growth to the A Cappella's excellent district and state contest ratings, to the numerous performances of the Madrigals, and to the special appearances of the Master Keys, the Ellet choirs represent yet another facet of the Orangemen Music Department.

Under the direction of Mr. Bryson Fillmore, with head accompaniast Cindy Badran (assisted by Sue Grau), the Ellet choirs have showed their pride.

Among the choirs outside activities this year was the highlights of the annual trip to New York. The fifty members that attended were really impressed with the hustle and bustle of the Manhattan area where they stayed. The traditional choir hayride was also a huge success.

The pride of the music department, the Ellet Madrigals, went to the best restaurants in town this year to sing. This is the first time that they have been to the three main restaurants in one season.

The A Cappella choir was cut down to 45 members this year for only one performance. WAKR video taped the partial choir and the Madrigals for a half hour performance that was aired on December 10.

With the outstanding reputation that this years' choirs have built up, the members can be proud of their involvement in the Music Department of Ellet.

A crowd of people watch the ACappella choir and Madrigals as they perform in a portable stage in the entrance way of Stan Hywet. A few former Ellet students are visible in the foreground.

'We've Got Tonight', the bob Seger hit of 1978, was chosen as the theme for the Sweet-heart Dance, sponsored by the choir, as it is annually. The decorations here were by Chris Kornas.

As You Wish, Your Majesty . . .

Perhaps the King is hard to live with, but Anna puts up with him as best she can. Here, Lisa as Anna explains to the King the most unscientific thing of all - Moses in the Bible.

Perhaps Yul Brynner is the 'King' in many peoples eyes, but John Fagan and Lisa Simmons would never admit it. Because on November 17, 18, and 22, the two seniors portrayed the lead characters on stage in Rodgers and Hammersteins 'the King and I.'

The cast consisted of over 80 people, some of the more major parts going to seniors Tom Jones (Krahlahome), Ruth Mull (Lady Thiang), Harry Gardner (Lun Tha), as well as seniors John Fagan and Lisa Simmons as the King and Anna Lenowens. Junior Pam Tharp portrayed Tuptim.

Set in Siam in the 1800's, the story deals with a stubborn and willful school marm who goes to teach the King of Siam's children. Her obstacle however, is the King, who choses to run his country in a manner that Anna considers uncivilized. The clash comes when the two disagree over love, with both of them learning more about it than either had bargained for.

Directed by Bryson Fillmore and Fran DiCintio, the show was accompanied by a full orchestra (led by Cindy Badran at the piano) and had full Broadway costumes designed by Kathy and Betty Rolenz.

The show met with three nights of standing ovations, much praise, and even a letter from Deborah Kerr wishing the cast the best of luck and her best wishes.

As the show ended with over 8 weeks of work invested, the cast seemed like one happy family. John Fagan said he would miss it, but had not only the show memories to share, but also the memory of his mother's shock as he sent her a telegram the day the cast list was posted, that merely said, 'John is King.'

And for awhile, he surely was, as the show became a classic for Ellet theater goers.

John, as the King, prays to Buddah to help the people of Siam in their task of impressing the British. The King is leading his people in a prayer that ends up in a unspoken truce between the King and the school marm.

Anna and one of the Kings' wives dance in the schoolroom, demonstrating the warmth and affection that she has established with the wives and children of Siam. Here, Lisa Simmons and Michele McNeal lead the dancing to the tune of 'Getting to Know You.'

Marianne Banar and Lea Rockey keep an anxious watch over his majesty's children, as the King and Anna have a fight in the schoolroom. The show included some 20 kids, between the ages of 4 and 13, and even had an honest to goodness pair of twins.

While Luntha blends in harmony with her.

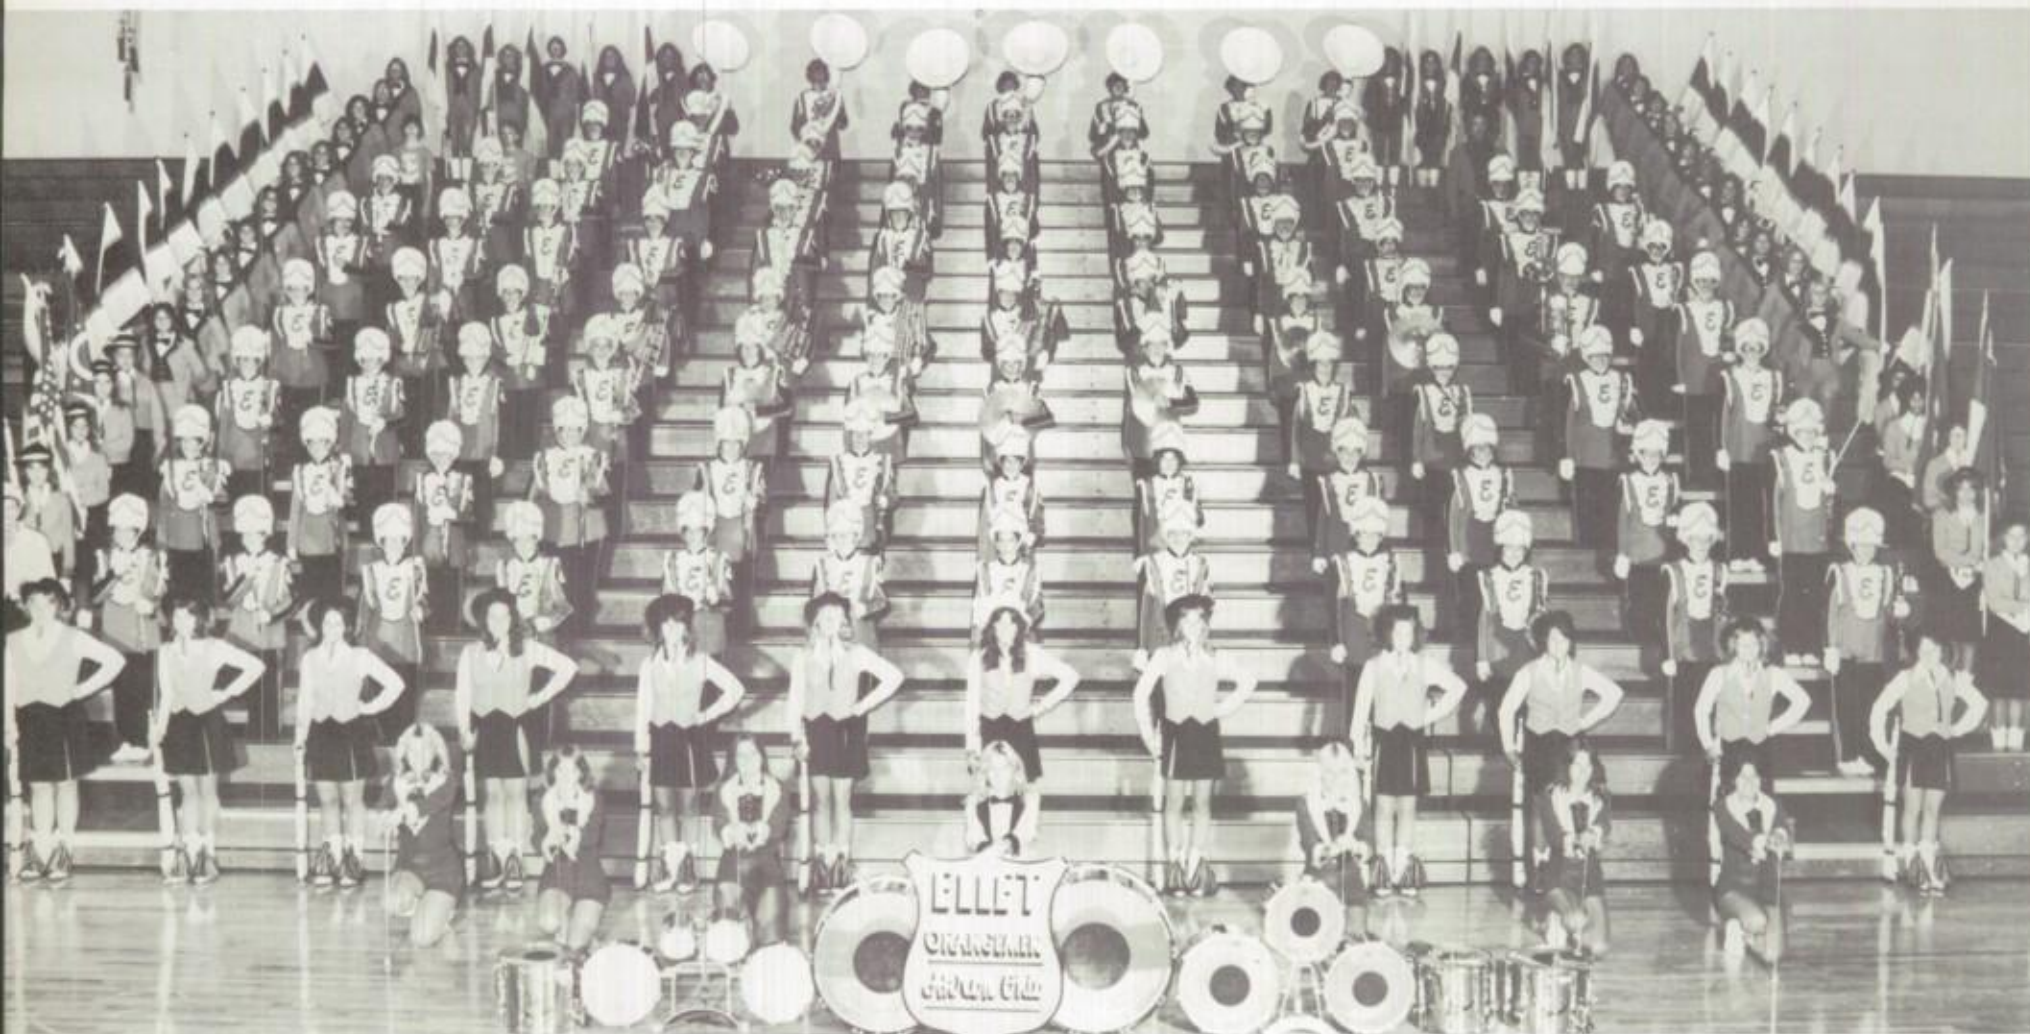

John and Ralph Fagan, brothers, but here father and son, discuss the things Chululongkorn has been learning from his English schoolteacher. Later, the King puzzles over how times have changed in one of the audience favorites, 'A Puzzlement.'

The King described all the plans he had for entertaining the english upon their arrival. Little does he know that the British are then arriving, and that the evening to come will be his demise.

Concerned are Cindy Gaugler, Rhonda Keenan, and Tracy Butcher.

Leading the band in their orange velvet uniforms this year were majorettes; Diane Schleicher, Susie Keiper, Wendy Hujik, Head majorette Patty McVan, Terrie Glenn, Aileen Rorar, and Leanne Pearson. "Twirling, said one, "was fun, except when you had to pile up your hair into one of those wigs."

Finishing off one of our basketball assemblies are Wendy Hujik, Susie Keiper, Diane Schleicher, Patty McVan, Leanne Pearson, Aileen Rorar, and Terrie Glenn, doing one of their favorite majorette routines. The band is seen in the background providing the musical accompaniment. This assembly was the first basketball assembly, and also featured pom-poms and cheerleaders.

Pom-pom captains for 1978-79 were seniors Bonnie Batchik, Sally Schrock, and junior Robin Cunningham.

All of the hard work it takes to create the new sound of Ellet's band is sporting. Under the leadership of Mr. Lucas, band president Susie Keiper, and other band officers, the "Pride of Ellet" went on National television for the third year in a row. The "City of Brotherly Love" welcomed the band with open arms, and was an experience none will soon forget.

After marching in nine football games, the highlight being the Homecoming game, the band now shares a camaraderie that will never die.

The majorettes competed in individual competition, the band won numerous awards, five first place trophies for the summer band parades, and brought the pride that Ellet has longed for back into it's halls.

Band president Susie Keiper said, "It's sad leaving, but at least we'll know we've left something behind. If this school never has any other great bands (and they will), atleast we had ours. Some of my best friends and happiest times were in this band . . ."

The best experience the band had this year, was the time they spent in Philadelphia. The three story mall across from the hotel added a little bit to their enjoyment. In all the trip will not soon be forgotten by any member of the band.

For all the members of the band, the year was a bit trying, too. According to one member, "Band is lots of fun until it rains and you only have twenty minutes to put your uniform on."

With all of the band's numerous activities, the 1978-1979 Ellet High School Marching Band will not be forgotten for a long time to come.

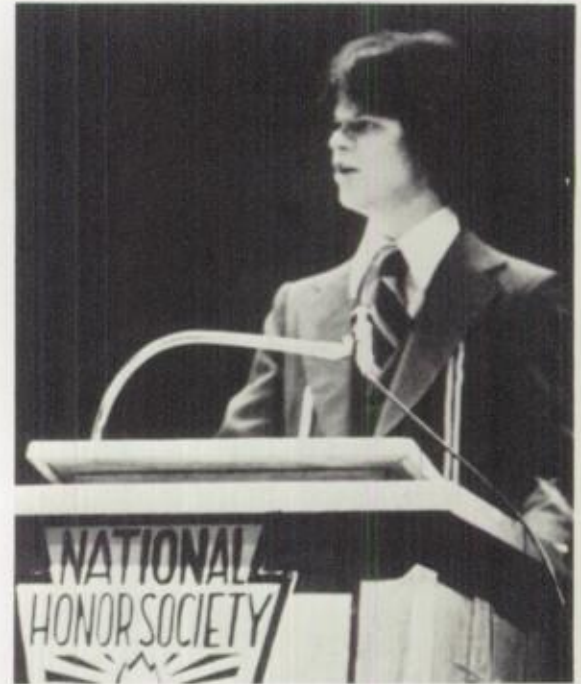

This years' rifle squad maintained the excellence that has become a tradition for the band. Led by senior captain Elaine Neitzenrater, the squad won numerous awards in many band parades. The squad consisted of, from left to right, Bonnie Rhinesmith, Jenny Jacobs, Kim Gettle, Nancy Haren, Laurie

Hobson, Chris Mayfield, Captain Elaine Heitzenrater, Alisa Reece, Lynn Fogle, Dionne Barnes, Karen Lucart, and Marie Leitch. "Twirling a rifle is a lot different from twirling a baton, and it's a lot harder than it looks, believe me," said Elaine.

N.H.S. Has Active Year

At Honor Society inductions in April, the seniors who were inducted their junior year listen as Becky Butcher speaks on Scholarship. Other speakers were John Fagan, Joe Mattingly, and Johanna Watkins.

John Fagan, here speaking on character, was only one of the total 99 to be members of the 1979 Honor Society. John's speech was a crowd-favorite.

The Madrigals were the entertainment at the inductions, here singing "We've Only Just Begun", by the Carpenters. Below, Byron Rose and Sue Conrad struggle with roses as the society sold some 700 of them on May 1.

Mrs. Otto, another harried advisor, is busy finding which rose is pink and which is pink. She says that she would never give it up, and loves the kids.

Red Cross Takes Chance

Good Morning this is WEHS. First a word from Red Cross Vice President, Ann Marvin. (Background music: "Ready to take a chance again")

"You took a chance when you gave blood in November, or recruited someone else to donate,

You took a chance when you trained to work on the blood mobile site, or helped to schedule donors,

You took a chance when you sang Christmas carols and visited the people at Haven of Rest Rescue Mission—or when you took cookies you had prepared for them,

You took a chance each time you worked with the elderly at Middlebury Manor, making their lives less lonely,

You took a chance when you brought good will bundles, or persuaded a neighbor to donate items to help give work to the handicapped,

Now it's time to take a chance again—Through your enrollment in red cross, you have the chance to help people in ways you may never see—through a disaster chest to a school ravaged by floods; through a friendship box to a poverty stricken child; through food and supplies to children in war-torn areas of the world . . .

Be ready to take a chance again — Join Red Cross NOW!"

The Red Cross members and advisors were: Miss Redovian, Don Brodie, Sue Sypherd, Mrs. Ross, Mr. Dishauzi, Mrs. Lightner, Ann Marvin, and Yvonne Oplinger.

Student Council Reviews Year

Mike Myers and Karen Parker, President and Vice-President of Student Council, have had quite a year.

First, there was Student Council elections last year, and as the year started, there was Homecoming. The Homecoming was a lot of work, and Council spent about two months in preparation for the event. Karen, who was voted Senior attendant, was still in there decorating, along with about thirty other people, on the day of the dance. "I Need You" was the theme for the dance, and Mike described it as a success, and everyone saying that it was one of the best in years.

At Christmas, the canned food drive by Student Council was another achievement, with many families helped by the groups' efforts.

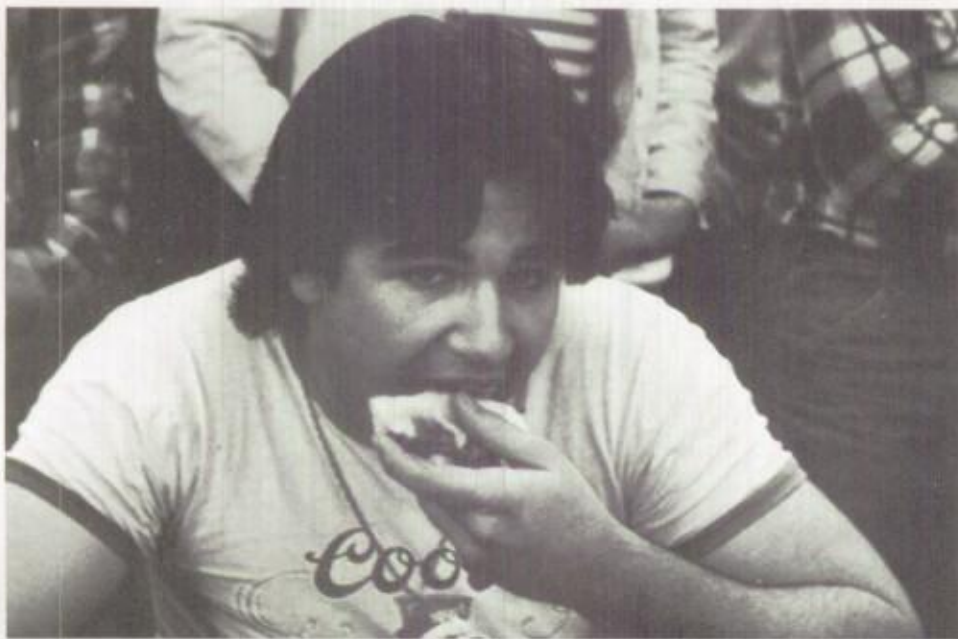

By Spring, plans were under way for the Student Council Week, held April 16-20. Pizza eats, free movies, two on two basketball, and, to finish off the week, the first Spring Dance. Though Council reportedly lost money on the semi-formal dance, the couples who attended said that they really enjoyed it. For Mike Myers and Karen Parker, it was an idea that had been in their minds from their election.

Other Council officers were Diane Shleicher and Terri Glenn.

Council also helped the choir out with the Sweetheart Dance, solving a question of balloting for King and Queen by amending the printed rule for elections.

Brian Lindesmith, senior, is shown here devouring a piece of pizza during the Student Council Week. The winners were Paul Dort and Chuck Reece, both seniors. "It was messy," said one contestant, but it was a whole lot of fun."

Mike Myers may not be a dictator of any kind, but Student Council members say he was one of the "best we've ever had." All school students have voiced their appreciation for the good job Student Council has done this year. At right members Denise Smith and Patti Oberholtz sell doughnuts before school, a year-long council project.

Growing . . . Better And Brighter!

Robin Stover, April Schoonover, Mr. Dan MacLachlan, Patty Oberholtz, and Mr. Richard Hukil.

This year Ellet and Firestone were the only yearbooks to have their senior pictures in color, in addition to the other 16 color pages that were examples of student life. The staff staged a promotional skit for the student body, that starred senior Doug Boarman, and was met with people wondering whether or not the staff was sane. Then, left-over pictures were sold, bringing many an embarrassing moment to light for many Ellet students.

This year the editors of the 1979 PROFILE were Patty Oberholtz and Robin Stover, and assistant editor April Schoonover. At this time they would like to express thanks and good wishes to the student body by way of the yearbook opening, and closing.

Doug Boarman, John Fagan, Kay Koutendes, Marty Bobosh, and Don Leonard.

Bill Bennett, Anna Nutt, Becky Butcher, Sharon Cochran, and Leslie Laubscher. Also special thanks to Marty Pantages in the photography area.

Go Ask Leslie . . . About Go Ask Alice

Go Ask Alice, the play that was so popular a few years ago in book form, came to Ellet in April, as a result of the new drug awareness inspired by the Ellet Concerned Citizens.

The show, which starred Leslie Laubscher in the title role, was a moving story of a teenage girl who was willing to try anything to be popular and to make her parents proud of her. In the course of the play, she makes friends with drug users, different types of boys, she runs away, and finally is killed when one of her old drug friends puts an overdose in some chocolate peanuts. By the time she dies she is off drugs, has a new boyfriend, and is on her way to recovery.

Other cast members were Bill Bennett, Merrie Gardner, Marianne Banar, Lea Rocky, Marty Bobosh, April Schoonover, Robin Stover, Val Hayes, Kim Kovach, John Fagan, Bev Bokar, Harvey Thomas, Randy Eplin, Joanie Fagan, Russ Poling, and was directed by Mr. Dan MacLachan.

Right, Leslie and Bill Bennett are having a father daughter discussion on the fact that he is proud of her the way she is, and assures her she doesn't have to compete with her brother and sister.

Mariann and Val are having a down-right fight in Alices' bedroom, because Val is leading Alice (Leslie) astray. After Alice and Chris (Marianne) run away to San Francisco, and open a shop, Alice goes home again to resume her life. The storeroom of the shop is visible in the background.

Merrie Gardner, as Mrs. Aberdeen, here is having a conversation with the daughter she can't understand. Later on though, she comes to realize her daughter is no different from her.

Lea Rocky, as Peggy, and Marty Bobosh, as Freddie, are seen here trying to keep warm in the storeroom of the shop. Peggy and Freddie are spongers off Chris and Alice, as well as drug-addicts.

In Other Words

This years Latin club (all in one class of first, second and third year students), was active in not only the Orange Blossom Festival, but also in the annual slave sale. On that day, slaves were sold to people for any amount of money. The slaves were first year Latin students. Club officers were Jim Madick, Kevin Frame, and Nancy Penn.

This years Spanish club consisted of, (back row) from left to right, Diane Schleicher, Mickey Calli, Leslee Herro, , , Coleen Ezzo, and Miss Haberkost, advisor. Front row consists of (representative) Bob Dimeff, Kay Koutendes, Ronna Kopie, Kelly Dailey, Patty McVan with Harry Gardner on her lap, Tom Batchik, and April Schoonover, seated on Tom. The club sponsored a trip to a Spanish restaurant this spring.

Ellet High is very proud of their foreign language department. The foreign languages that are offered here at Ellet are; German, French, Spanish, and Latin. Members of these classes are then urged to join their respective clubs.

This year the Foreign language clubs combined on many occasions. In November, under the supervision of Mrs. Lightner and Miss Haberkost, they went to the Cleveland Hofbrau Haus. Later that month, the members began to sell T-shirts to help raise money for their awards banquet in the spring.

The Latin club turned their members into slaves for a day again this year. The student body was allowed to purchase slaves to rule over for one day.

The French and German clubs this year were represented this year by people from both languages. Formal offices were non-existent. After their trip to the Hofbrau House in Cleveland, the language clubs proceeded to carol in the halls at Christmas. Many classes invited them in to sing, and Mrs. Pam Lightner felt that it was an experience worth repeating in following years.

As a fund raiser, the two clubs sold plastic tumblers. The profits made were added to an already plentiful language bank account. Later in the year, an awards banquet was held, honoring class officers, club representatives, and students who had contributed much to the study of foreign languages in the preceeding year.

Cheryl Bowman, and Lillian Bachmeier are seen here cutting and serving cake. April Schoonover and Cheryl Muck also assisted in serving food at the first annual Foreign Language Banquet. International dishes were served, as all guests brought a covered dish.

Robin Stover, her mom and dad, and Diane Schleicher, all survey the food situation at the banquet. Dishes came from America, Italy, France, Germany, Czechoslovakia, Spain, Mexico, Canada, Portugal and Russia. Everyone was very pleased with the food, and Roloids weren't much in evidence.

The Foreign Language Banquet, an idea inspired by Pam Lightner and Linda Haberkost, was held May 8 in the cafeteria. The cafeteria was decorated in a Paris cafe theme, complete with red and white checked tablecloths and wine bottles with candles in them. As a finishing touch, red and white streamers wound around the poles completed the decorations, as geraniums in white milk bud vases completed the center pieces.

The language banquet was primarily for the presentation of awards, for everything from straight A's to recognition for taking more than one language awards. The Juanita Davis outstanding Language Award went to Becky Butcher, one of five students in the city who takes three foreign languages.

Becky Butcher and her mother Betty are having a conversation about how it was the night of the banquet. Becky later received the Juanita Davis Award.

One of the posters adorning the walls of the cafeteria was this French one meaning "This is nothing!"

Maria Gomes, here at Ellet as a sophomore from Portugal, was the emcee for the banquet. In a special way, Maria had the audience recite the Pledge of Allegiance — in Spanish.

We would like to pay a special tribute to the following people for their support in our effort to make this, one of Ellet's best Yearbooks.

It's time you gave us a talking-to.

Congratulations to the graduates. And now we think it's time to sit down for a chat...with you doing the talking.

At The Firestone Bank, we'd like to know about your plans for the future...college or a job. In either case, we can advise you on how to make the coming years more pleasant by starting a banking program designed just for you.

You're invited to stop in at any of our convenient banking centers and talk with one of our people. You see, we understand young people's needs...because we listen...and we listen hard.

The Firestone Bank

The good listeners.

SLUMBER

May God grant you peaceful slumber,
Till the morning light is new,
May he fill your life with gladness,
Each new day you awaken to
If, per chance, you have some sadness
In your heart, some trouble too,
Let me prove with Love most tender,
as our Love grows day by day,
I will always Love and want you
as I kiss your tears away.

Ralph Shares Poetry

Ralph Willoughby
Class of '79

FAREWELL

After forty years of planning your lessons for the day,
with forty little wiggle worms,
from September clear through May.
Eager, bright and anxious,
They try out each new scheme,
Your patience worn so thin at times,
you almost want to scream,

Well, I guess it's over,
after all these many years,
of anxious, happy planning
amid my joys and fears.

Oh! Such Wonderous Memories,
My children one and all,
I love each one and all,

I love each one like they were mine,
Somehow God heard my call,
To let me spend my lifetime,
Devoted everyday-
To prepare life's richest blessings-
Their teacher on life's way.

NEW DAWNS

May the Joy of New Dawns still be many,
Let twilight tears be few.
Grant me Health, Love, and Laughter
all my days dear,
Let me share my Life: Being loved—
Loving you.

A TEACHER

We all have lots of things to learn
Before we really reach,
Cause it takes a lot of planning
With each class you try to teach.
Each teacher tries, in his own way,
This monumental task
To give to every student,
Life's finer things to grasp.
There is no rule to reach this goal
No hard fast substitute.
It takes hard work in every case
This is the only route.
You know, you all are special,
In each task that you assume,
For you set the fine example for each student in your room.

Finally . . .

As we look ahead into our futures, ahead into the 80's, the promise for a new day, a new life, and new adventures await.

The Profile hopes that each has grown, and will continue to grow into a more fulfilling future, as we all continue to grow better and brighter.

The 1979 Staff would like to take the opportunity to thank all of you for your cooperation and patience during this school year.

Above and below graduates of the Class of 199? are also a part of EHS's better and brighter future.
